

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

Quinn London is committed to achieving the highest possible standards of health, safety and welfare & meeting its moral & legal obligations. All work will be carried out, so far as is reasonably practicable, in compliance with the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 to safeguard our employees and others who may be affected by our operations. The company will:

- Maintain a safe working environment for all company employees, ensuring it is without risk to health & safety, that adequate provision is made regarding welfare arrangements & means of safe access & egress;
- Provide adequate resources to ensure proper provision for health & safety can be made;
- Provide appropriate information, instruction, training and supervision necessary for staff;
- Ensure arrangements for the use, handling, storage, transport & maintenance of plant, substances & systems of work;
- Obtain specialist advice on matters connected to our activities to determine risks likely to affect us & ensure relevant precautions are taken to guard against such risks;
- Investigate accidents with the intention to prevent injury & ill-health;
- Regularly review health & safety objectives & management systems;
- Promote a positive health & safety culture & commit to continual improvement in our performance through communication, innovation & reward;
- Regularly consult with employees on all matters relating to health & safety through the Safety Leadership Team & other appropriate media;
- Ensure that all employees fully understand their duties to protect themselves, others who are affected by their acts or omissions & to co-operate with their employer in all health & safety related matters.

This policy will be reviewed at least annually or as legislation demands and changes communicated to employees as required.
